

Create customized reports describing over 100 measures of diversity, opportunity, and quality of life for 362 metropolitan areas.

JOIN OUR MAILING LIST

Enter an email address...

Metro Profiles

- Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas

Indicator Topics

- Population Demographics and Diversity, Housing Opportunities, Education, Health, Residential Integration and Neighborhood Characteristics, Economic Opportunities, Crime, Physical Environment

FEATURED DATA

Segregation of the Child Population: Dissimilarity with Non-Hispanic Whites by Race/Ethnicity Year: 2010; Race/Ethnicity: Non-Hispanic Black; 100 Largest MSAs

Legend for segregation levels: 24.3% - 52.3%, 52.3% - 61.0%, 61.0% - 69.6%, 69.6% - 86.2%

VIEW THE MAP

NEWS

NEW! diversitydata.org named a Health Data All Star

diversitydata.org has been named a Health Data All Star, one of 50 prominent domestic resources for health data...

Homeownership rates for blacks decline in three quarters of large metros: Latino and Asian shares of homeowners rise sharply

The housing crisis has had a particularly severe effect on black households, with black homeownership rates in three quarters of the 100 largest metro areas dropping between 2000 and 2010...

Almost half of households with children in large metro areas now headed by a person of color

As of 2010, in the nation's 100 largest metropolitan areas, only about a third of households contained children, and almost half of these were headed by a person of color.

Segregation of black children falls in most metro areas but remains high: Fewer metros experience segregation declines for Latinos

A new issue brief reveals that residential segregation for black children fell in 83 of the largest 100 metros between 2000 and 2010 but remains at high levels.

Read more