AMP UP
“The opportunity to enroll in AMP UP came at a critical time for me, as I needed to get some deeper insight into what direction to take my business. I didn’t really know if the curriculum would help, but decided to give it a try. Indeed, it has been very helpful. The class has given me new insight about how to develop a concrete growth plan by getting it out of my head and putting it on paper.”

Dee Dixon, CEO of Pride Communications
Project P.I.E.C.E.

- Addresses labor market shortages in construction industry
- Connects people with multiple barriers to employment
- Partners with Goodwill Industries and Urban League
- Engages the construction industry
• The program met or exceeded its three year goals in the first 18 months

• Double the number of job seekers enrolled than expected
P.I.E.C.E. Participants (2017-2018)

“I am making good money. I now have stable housing...”  A.M. – 26 years old

He came to the program after several deaths of loved ones and with no strong support system or stable housing. He dropped out of college after his mother passed away. He credits Project P.I.E.C.E. with providing the path back to his zeal for learning. For over a year, he has seen continuous growth and success in his employment with Environmental Diversified Services.
Next Steps: Creating Procurement Pathways

• Make bid language and process easier

• Reduce burden of bonding and insurance

• Review policies in business investment grant agreements

• Market upcoming opportunities directly to MWSBEs
Next Steps: Beyond the City Government

Anchor Change Together (ACT)

• Strengthen corporate connections with MBEs

• Initial pilot will include higher education and hospital systems
